About the Vilmarhaus Marburg and the application

It is very nice that you would like to live in the 'Vilmarhaus': We are glad about your application! Please take some time to read through everything, before you fill out the application for admission.

The Vilmarhaus is a facility of the Protestant church. In the neighbouring 'Hans-von-Soden-Haus' you can find the ESG, which is a Protestant student community (www.esg-marburg.de). During the semester there are weekly services and theme nights. In the ESG you can also find the ESG drama club, the ESG choir and the ESG band. Once per week the bar is opened, where you can play tabletop football, billiard and darts.

The Vilmarhaus is shaped by its ecumenical and international character and strongly lives on the engagement by its inhabitants. It offers you the chance to escape the everyday university life. The students live with each other in a narrow space neighborhood. This living arrangement requires mutual consideration between the inhabitants and also opens up the possibility for an active communal life. From inhabitants it is expected that they take over responsibilities and fulfill certain duties, for example cleaning service on your own corridor and cooperation in the Vilmarhaus and ESG; and the participation in the assembly (generally once per semester) is essential. Please note that the missing of these duties can result in a cancellation! If you only search for an inexpensive room in a nice location without helping in the social requirements of the house life, you should apply somewhere else.

The home admission committee, which consists of the director / hall of residence leader, student priest, pedagogic employee, hall of residence representatives, one delegate of the ESG as well as two people sent by the curatorship, decides on the admission.

The Vilmarhaus takes students of all faculties, under ensuring his Protestant character, without taking into consideration the cultural and national origin. However, at least two thirds of the whole inhabitants should belong to a Christian church.

If you have any questions, you can contact the pedagogic employee or the hall of residence representatives (Heimsprecher*innen) (behold www.vilmarhaus.de/kontakt).
